

We are strongly opposed to any revisions to policies that would allow telemarketers to call us. There are certain ones that we accept calls from, but the majority of them are a waste of our time and we do not want them calling us. Please do not introduce any kind of legislation or policy changes to take away the right of Indiana government and its citizens to block those unwanted calls.